

November 17, 2016

To our Valued Partners:

It is our hope this communication finds you, your family and business doing well. As we enter our fourth quarter, Globe and its family is focused on not only meeting, but exceeding, your expectations. If we have fallen short in anyway, please feel free to call (1-866-GLOBE50) or email me (mike.laderoute@globetechnologies.com) directly. Our promise is to make it right. As we approach the year end we want to say THANK YOU for your continued support and your business. We do not take your business or our relationship for granted. We are aware we do this together.

We are beginning the holiday season. This is the time of year we all take a moment to celebrate special times with family and friends and count our many blessings. In recognition of these special holidays our Globe family will be taking some well-deserved time as well. Our holiday schedule is as follows:

Closed: November 24th & 25th

Thanksgiving Break

- Last shipping day November 23rd

Closed: December 23rd through January 2nd

Christmas & New Year's Break

- Last shipping day December 22nd

During these dates, there will be no shipping of products. Email and phone support will be limited. We encourage you to prepare and put your inventory into stock today so that you will have product to avoid any inconvenience. We thank you in advance for your understanding. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Our Globe family extends to all "Happy Holidays". May they be filled with family and friends. We look forward to serving your needs in the New Year!

Happy Holidays,
The Globe Family